“We approach every bathroom design with three key factors in mind – ergonomics, storage and natural light. For some clients the bathroom is all about function, while others request a luxury day spa at home and our design approach is built around the client brief.”

- 1 Towel rail “I like the look and quality of this heated towel rail.” Snug heated towel ladder, from $800, from Rogerseller.
- 2 Basin “Clean and simple lines.” Boffi ‘Box Lavabi’ washbasin vanity unit, POA, from Aquaform.
- 3 Luxuries “A scented candle is a real indulgence.” Voluspa candles, from $60, from Macleay on Manning.
- 4 Towels “Thick, luxurious towels are a must.” Pure linen towels, $111 each, from Planet Commonwealth.
- 5 Vases “Ceramics add a sculptural element.” Kose bottles from Milan; kosemilano.com.
- 6 Tapware “The engineering of Boffi’s Pipe Rubinetto tap ensures perfect water temperature every time.” Boffi ‘Pipe Rubinetto’ high tap, POA, from Aquaform.
- 7 Designer tip “Extending finishes to the ceiling maximises the sense of space. Conceal small windows that can’t be changed with shutters for a modern look.”
- 8 Flooring “Nero Marquina marble creates a luxe effect. A standout element in a room.” From $220/sqm, from ArteDomus.
- 9 Shower head “Simple design and engineering is the way to go.” Boffi ‘Cut Rubinetti’ shower system, POA, from Aquaform.
- 10 Toilet “Villeroy & Boch Subway compact range has a soft-close seat and is very space efficient.” Subway compact wall-hung pan, $1169, from Villeroy & Boch.
- 11 Luxuries “Organic beauty products are the way to go.” Jet-set organic products, from $49, from Venustus. For stockists see Address Book.
